

Marianist Virtual Learning Community Courses

Winter and Spring Schedule 2008

January 6-February 9

Registration: October 16-January 2

Marianist Studies: Prayer

Explore various “methods” or practices of prayer. Notice how the Spirit of God is always at work, everywhere—including in our own hearts.

Marianist Studies: Charism

Develop a deeper and broader understanding of how to live out the Marianist Charism, spirituality, and mission in the wider Church and global community.

Marianist Studies: Leadership

Discover a leadership style that is purposeful, developmental, adaptive, collaborative, and transformative in connection with the Marianist tradition.

March 30-May 3

Registration: February 26-March 26

Marianist Studies: Founders

Walk with the founders as they respond to the needs of their day. Learn their personal stories, and reflect on the legacy they left for us to draw on in our times.

Marianist Studies: Community

Enhance your ability to form community in the Marianist spirit as you learn about the roots, expression, and unique characteristics of Marianist communities.

Marianist Studies: Justice

Envision social change from a Marianist perspective through integrating Chaminade’s insights about responding to the world’s needs with the realities of modern life.

Marianist Studies: Leadership

For more information on our courses please go to: vlc.udayton.edu, or contact Patti.Gehred@notes.udayton.edu. Groups (6-12 participants) interested in taking a course together can contact NACMS and, if possible, we will schedule a “reserved” section at your convenience.
